

Fund Development Advisory Group Volunteers Wanted!

The Adoption Council of Canada (ACC), a national non-profit organization focused on raising public awareness of adoption, promoting the placement of waiting children and youth, and stressing the importance of post-adoption services, is seeking fund development experts to form a dynamic group that can make the right connections across the country to take the ACC to the next level of sustainability and maturity.

The Fund Development Advisory Group will work to support and advise both the Executive Director and the Board on best practices and appropriate methods to advance the ACC strategic mission and mandate. The members of the group will develop strategies to encourage new or increased contributions to the ACC.

Members of the Fund Development Advisory Group may be asked to attend certain community events of the organization.
